We are privileged to present this lineage in this book form. We all owe a large debt to several industrious and caring people who did so much research, compiling and sharing to make it possible to present this interesting lineage.

First: we thank Lawrence V. Richardson, my cousin, who lives in Paradise, Butte County, California. He copied by hand, the TRIBBY information from the Hinshaw Quaker Records book of Virginia which is our source for The JOHN & ELIZABETH (Fabian) TRIBBEY/TRIBBY family records. Plus he shared the huge collection of Family Group Sheets which he has received from many correspondants who shared their family information.

Second: Thanks go to John Floyd Tribbey of New Albany, Floyd County, Indiana and his grandson, Philip S. Tribbey who did so much computer work making those family lineage charts and then shared them with me. Also thanks go to Stanley E. Tribbey of Wilmette, Cook County, Illinois who did so much correspondence with many Tribbey descendants back in 1952-3 and he published The TRIBBEY NEWS and he also made up those TRIBBEY lineage charts which he made first on the large drafting paper and then reduced some to send out with The TRIBBEY NEWS. He also produced the 17 foot taped together TRIBBEY-RARER multi-section chart of his lineage - AND the large Drafting paper chart of his wife, Lucille Dukerschein's ancestry.

Third: we must thank Karol Atwood who did so much research on her branch of the TRIBBYS and TRIBBIES and then published an article in the DGS NEWS. But not being content with her efforts she also shared her research and compilation with me.

Fourth; a big Thank You goes to Thomas Tribbie who shared his branch (TRIBBIE) with Karol Atwood and she shared it with me. Also Robert & Dorothy Tribbie who updated and shared their family information.

Fifth: we must thank all those individuals who shared their family information with any one of us who brought this lineage as far as it appears in this issue. We also gained 5 marriage dates from Mike Tribbe of Cincinnati, Ohio.

This work is nowhere near complete! It needs the additional input from those families who are descended from any and all branches which are not yet developed in this book.

We sincerely request that anyone having additional information on any of these families to please write or call me and I promise to include all new information in the next version of this book.

IF anyone discovers an error - PLEASE - notify me as I want to present the most accurate lineage we can. Sensitive information will be treated with due respect.

All new sources will be credited and listed in the List of Sources in the back of the book.

HISTORY of LOUDOUN COUNTY, VIRGINIA

Stafford Cnty, Va. was divided in 1730, and the County of Prince William was formed.

In 1742, Prince William Cnty was divided, and the County of Fairfax was created and named in honor of its titled proprietor.

In 1757, Fairfax County was divided and the territory west of its altered boundry was christened, Loudoun County.

LOUDOUN County was named in honor of Lord Loudoun, a representative peer of Scotland, who the year before its establishment, and during the French and Indian War, had been appointed Captain-general and Governor-in-chief of the province of Virginia, and Commander-in-chief of the British military forces in the colonies.

From: "Abstracts of Wills, Inventories and Administration Accounts of Loudoun County, Virginia 1757 - 1850 by J. E. S. King - 1984

In addition to the above we have further history of Loudoun Cnty from; Loudoun County Marriages 1760 - 1850 by Vogt & Kethley.

"Loudoun County was created in 1757 from an area of 519 square miles previously contained in Fairfax County. The new county was named in honor of Lord Loudoun, titular governor of Virginia and head of British forces in America, 1757-8. Two new ecclesiastical parishes were established in the new county, namely, Cameron and Shelbourne Parishes, with Goose Creek as the dividing line between them.

"The new county had considerable geographical significance for Virginia at the time of its inception. Despite the Proclamation of 1763 prohibiting colonists from moving west of the Appalations, many settlers were ignoring these edicts and pushing through the gaps in the mountains. Loudoun County was ideally situated as a nexus of western settlement. The point at which its county seat, Leesburg was located, represented the meeting point of two important Indian trails. Pioneers used these thoroughfares through the wilderness as their own, expanding them into major Inter-regional roads. These were the Leesburg Pike and the Carolina Road. By 1730-1740, settlement had commenced.

"Also, Loudoun's position with its northwestern border resting on the Potomac facilitated movement of settlers out of western Maryland and the German settlements of Pennsylvania. Numerous German, Scotch-Irish, Swedish, as well as English surnames are found in the marriage records.

"During the War between the States, Loudoun's proximity to the Union capital of Washington ensured that the land would be marched over almost continuously by both armies for nearly 4 years. Several engagements were fought here, and it was from Loudoun County that J.E.B. Stuart's supporting Cavalry elements launched their rush to link up with General Lee in his northern campaign. Stuart left Loudoun on June 27, 1863 and finally met with Lee on July 2 outside Gettysburg".

James: Obituary:

"The early part of his life was devoted to the pursuits of husbandry, and (after the death of his father) to the protection and support of his mother and her orphan (fatherless) children. At the age of 25, he joined the American Army, and assisted in avenging his country's wrongs. In the beginning his advantages of fortune and education were few, but nature had given him a mind of the first order, and formed in her finest mold, which afforded a wonderful instance of the power of native genius in rising to the highest degree of respectability when aided by unremitting perseverance and inflexible integrity. He lived as he died in peace with all his neighbors, beloved and respected by all who knew him".

His landed possessions were enormous. It is said that he owned 9,000 acres of land in one body around Short Hill, near Hillsboro, and extending as far as Lovettsville, and 4,000 acres in another body on Goose Creek near Lincoln. He was a great business man, and would doubtless have been very wealthy had he not died when still comparatively young. Each of his children is said to have received property valued at $50,000.00 Shortly after his death, his personal property alone was appraised at $19,010.00.

His home near Hillsboro was called "Ithaca". The old mansion was long since destroyed by fire, and nearly all of his extensive possessions have passed out of the family. The household furnishings were massive and antique. The silver service was superb, some of it still in the possession of his descendants. He spent a great deal of money on the education of his children. The best teachers available were employed at his home continuously, and 2 of his 3 sons completed their education at Princeton.

In the burying ground at "Ithaca" at least 22 members of the family are interred. Not having attended to for many years, the plot is now in wretched condition, and some of the inscriptions are almost illegible. But many of the dates given herewith were taken from these stones.

James McIlhany was prominent in many ways, his influence extending far beyond his own community. He sat on the bench of County Justices along with James Monroe and others, and later became High Sheriff of the County. In the Order Book under the date of April 11, 1781, it was "ordered that James McIlhany, Gent. be paid 200 pounds of tobacco according to Law for attending Court 8 days as a witness against the several non-conformists in his District".

#115. The Records in the War Department state that "James McIlhany served as 1st lieutenant and captain, in the 5th, known also as th 5th Virginia Regiment, commanded by Col. Josiah Parker, Revolutionary War. His name appears on the rolls for the period from November 28, 1776, to May, 1778, on which he is reported as having been commissioned 1st lieutenant March 25, 1776, and he is reported on the muster and pay rolls of Capt. John Anderson's Company, same regiment, for June, 1778, with rank given as Captain, which roll shows that he resigned June 18. This roll is dated at Brunswick, July 5, 1778." See also Heitman's "Historical Register", and the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography", Vol II, pg 250. In the Revolutionary Records in the State Land Office, Book 3, pg 345, under date of May 24, 1834, there is a warrant for 4,000 acres of land issued to the heirs of James McIlhany, deceased, on account of his services as Captain in the Contintal Line for 3 years. It has always been said that he was a Major in Morgan's rifle brigade, but I have been able to find no authority for this, except the mention of "Majr. McIlhany" among the officers of Virginia troops listed in the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography", Vol. VII, pg 27." From "Some Virginia Families" by Hugh M. McIlhany, Gen Pub Co 1962.

Ruth: We have 2 dates for the marriage of Joseph Tribbey & Ruth Gregg, 1) 25 April 1782 at Leesburg, and 2) 25 March 1789 at Leesburg. The latter date seems more reasonable, even though Ruth was pledged to another man first, but she broke that promise and married Joseph Tribbey. John died 22 Feb 1954, Londonderry, Guernsey Cnty, Ohio, 30 Buried: .. Feb 1954, Londonderry Cemetery. There remains a question about where John W. Tribbie was born. We do not know for sure because the Isaac B. Tribby family emigrated to Iowa, then returned to Ohio in 1873. Whether they moved with the other Tribbys to Henry County in 1864 is not recorded. Family lore says he was born in Iowa. We accept that be cause Karol Atwood reported that the Tribbie family moved to Henry County and Isaac B. Tribbie family returned to Ohio. (GET).

The name born by Aloheus M. Tribbey is closely identified with the history of TRIBBEY and Pottawatomie County, and he worthily bears the name of the Father of the town. He came to Oklahoma from Indian Territory and securing a homestead in Pottawatomie County plotted and laid out thereon the town of TRIBBEY in October of 1905 and throughout the 3 succeeding years, he has been closely allied with its interests and upbuilding. He is of the highest type of business man, and his enterprize and ability have achieved results. He is the genial proprietor of the only hotel of the town, the TRIBBEY House, being well fitted for this position by 2 years of hotel proprietorship at Tecumseh, the County Seat of Pottawatomie County and is the proprietor of 2 drug stores, one in TRIBBEY and the other in Maud, in this county conducting the latter in company with his son, Thomas Tribbey. In Addition to all this Mr Tribbey owns his homestead farm of 160 acres, as a business man in many lines of endeavors, as a citizen, and above all, as the founder of TRIBBEY, we would preserve the record of his career among a people who have learned to honor and esteem him. Born in Knox County, Illinois, near Galesburg on June 10, 1856, he is the son of a farmer, Joseph W. Tribbey, who was born in Ohio, and was one of 3 brothers who served their Country faithfully and well in the Union Army during the Civil War. He died in Indian Territory at the age of 74 years, and his wife, Aee Elizabeth Kibbey, passed away in Texas when aged 62. Her family was also represented in the Union Army in the Civil War, where 3 brothers fought during the conflict. At her death, she left 6 children, and 3 are yet living; George W., a resident of Tonkawa, Oklahoma and Paul Lincoln, whose home is in the Cumberland Hill, this state.

Aloheus M. Tribbey, the 3rd of the surviving sons, spent the early years of his life on a farm in Illinois and at the age of 21, after receiving a common school education, he went to Denton, Jack County, Texas and in Tarrant County of that state in the following year, he wedded Mrs. Catherine (Bower) Saluches, whose people were from Tennessee and their children are; Martha Ann, Julia Alma, whose home is in Maud, this county; Thomas Henry; Arthur William, a student in the state university; Floyd Overton, in the drug store with his brother, Thomas H. in Maud; Roy Jackson still in school and Virgie Lulu, at home. The eldest son, Thomas H. is a graduate of pharmacy at the State Normal where he was a member of the College football team, and he is now the proprietor of a drug store in Maud. Mr Tribbey cast his first Presidential vote for a Republican Candidate, Rutherford B. Hayes. From: A History of the State of Oklahoma by Luther B. Hill A. B. 1909.

Obituary: The Healdton Herald, Healdton, Carter County, Oklahoma, Thursday May 5, 1977 - Front Page: WALTER JOSEPH TRIBBEY, veteran Druggist. Last rites for Walter J. Tribbey; Services for Walter J. Tribbey, Healdton pharmacist and former county commissioner, were held Monday at 11 AM in Shell Street Church of Christ, with Alan Eck officiating and Floyd Johnson assisting. Graveside rites were at 2:00 PM Monday in the Maud Cemetery. Mr Walter Joseph Tribbey died Friday afternoon, April 29, at his residence here. He was born in Tribbey, Oklahoma January 29, 1897. He was married to Miss Ollie Mae Walker on May 3, 1919 in Guthrie, Okla. Following his graduation from the University of Oklahoma School of Pharmacy, Mr Tribbey operated a drugstore in Wirt until 1929. He then operated a drugstore for his brother in Maud for a year before settling in Healdton in 1934. For 16 years, he operated TRIBBEY Drug Store here. In 1974, he was awarded a 50-year pin from the State Pharmacy Board. A member of Shell Street Church, where he was a Sunday School teacher. Mr Tribbey also served 2 terms as a county commissioner representing the western district from 1936 until 1940. He was a Navy Veteran of World War I. In addition to his wife, of the home at 503 S. 6th, he is survived by a son Walter J. Tribbey Jr of Chateau; a daughter, Mary Lou Huff of Euless, Texas; a sister, Virgie Lou Horning of Tecumseh; plus 4 grand-children and 2 great-grandchildren. Pall bearers were: Kenneth Eck, Winston Tolbert, Ted Alford, Everett Ford, Bill Walter and Othel Ballard. Arrangements were under the direction of Reger Funeral Home. Ibidm - page 1 ++ by WOC - the community suffered another great loss this week with the passing of Walter J. Tribbey, one of the pioneers of the Healdton area. A veteran pharmacist and druggist here for many years, he owned his own drug store for some time, and served as county commissioner for 2 consecutive terms. Mr Tribbey was well known among the area folks. As all true great pioneers who helped settle the community, they served undaunted. It was no different with Walter Tribbey. And, like the rest of the community, we considered him a good friend and citizen.

TRIBBE, (Tibby, Trebbe, Trebe, Trebev, Treble, Tribbey, Tribby, Tribee, Tribey, Triby)

James present in 1781s & 1784s

John, 1759, 1761-3, 65, 67-8, 70 71s-74s, 79s, 18s-82s, 84s

John Jr, 1779s, 82s

Jonathan, 1779s, 82s

Joseph, 1782s

Thomas, 1776s-77s, 1781s-84s

William, 1770, 1771s-74s, 1776s-77s, 1779s

The (s) indicates Shelbourne Parish which was formed in 1769, but this division was not reflected in the Tax Lists until 1771. It was seperated from Cameron Parish which was created in 1748, before the formation of Loudoun County (1757).

Cameron Parish was part of Fairfax County before the formation of Loudoun County, but we have not found any Tribbey/Tribby in Fairfax County records. Why ?

From this list we can deduce that all the Virginia TRIBBEYs that we know about were in Loudoun Cnty during this period of history. GET. The Tax Lists of 1787 and 1789 show some but not all of these persons to still remain in Loudoun Cnty.

James Trebe/Tribbee shows in the 1810 U S Census in Fleming Cnty, Knty. He purchased land in 1807 and witnessed a land sale in 1809.

This James Trebe/Tribbee may be the father of the extra Thomas and John (P2) Tribbey who show in the Tax List of 1789.

John Tribby Sr, (Quaker) may be the older and first of the TRIBBEY/TRIBBY lines that we know about now. I now believe that John Tribbey (Quaker) and his family were first to settle in Loudoun County, then his (brother?) James arrived about 1780, they were born in the same decade. James is first listed in 1781 in Snelbourne Parish and again in 1784. John's children are listed in the Quaker records of Loudoun County. James is a possible father of other children but we do not know who. James moved with son William to Fleming County, Kentucky and our THOMAS stayed in Loudoun County and maybe the Thomas listed in the Indenture of 1785. I can NOT find proof yet but circumstances make this a reasonable assumption for the beginnings of our TRIBBEY ancestors in Loudoun County after they moved from Pennsylvania where the records are even more difficult to find and evaluate.

Dear Mr. Richardson,

8 April 1975

Item (4)

Thank you for your letter on the TRIBBEY family prompted by my 'Helper' listing in the March issue.

I don't know immediately that there is a tie-in between the 2 lines but I strongly suspect that we have common TRIBBEY ancestors up the 'Tree'! Do your TRIBBEY ancestors have a Quaker background?

My tie-in to a TRIBBY line has not yet been established conclusively, but is based on such strong circumstantial evidence that I am certain (almost) that I have TRIBBY ancestors. In tracing a MORRIS line I found that several members were Quakers. Turning to Hinshaw's 'American Encyclopedia of Quaker Genealogy', and searching the records of Fairfax Monthly Meeting in Loudoun Cnty, Virg., the home of my MORRIS ancestors before migrating to Ohio, I found that on 27 August 1768 a SARAH MORRIS (formerly TRIBBEE) was disowned by the Quakers for marrying 'contrary to discipline'. My g-g-g-g grandfather JOHN MORRIS, b. ca 1742 & had a wife named SARAH. I then searched carefully the tithable lists for Loudoun Cnty and found JENKIN, John's father, and John, himself, were located in the same tax-collectors district with a JOHN TRIBBY, the only TRIBBY-MORRIS combination found in the lists.

Hinshaw, also shows that JOHN TRIBBY, wife and children were received into GOSHEN (Chester Cnty) Penn. meeting 30 June 1759. Again the tie-up in location and time with my Morris ancestors is consistent.

I searched the microfilm of the Goshen Monthly Meeting which I obtained from the Mormon Library in Salt Lake City and found a JOHN TRIBBY with a wife & children (unfortunately no names) were received 18 November 1754 into the Goshen Monthly Meeting, members of the Vuchland Particular Meeting, on 16 October 1758, in 'Womens Minutes'. ELIZABETH TRIBBY requested a certificate with husband and children (again unnamed) to transfer to Fairfax. I then checked the early Tax Lists for Chester Cnty, Pa., and found a JOHN TRIBBY as early as 1747 in PIKELAND Twp, also in 1749, 1750 and 1753, and in VINCENT Twp in 1757. Both of these townships are close to the site of Vuchland Quaker Meeting.

Are your TRIBBY ancestors tied in with the Quakers? Have you checked the records for possible information? If not, I would recommend that, although in your period of interest, it is possible no Quakers were left, and they must have been a lively branch in Virg. Hinshaw shows a JOHN Jr who was reported to joined the militia and marched away 24-1-1778, he was disowned for same and for marrying out of union, Feb 1779. A JONATHAN was disowned for wedding contrary to discipline 25 April 1782, a WILLIAM acknowledged fighting but was reinstated 26 March 1774, but then was disowned 26 August 1775 for attending the marriage of his sister MARGARET (Williams) for 'Dancing & frolicing at her wedding and wild conduct' etc.

Incidentally, you know that every name has it's spelling variations, but the number of variations for Tribbey is ridiculous! On the Loudoun Tax Lists mentioned above I found: 1761 TRIBBE, 1762 TRIBEY, 1765 TRIBBE, 1767 TREBE, 1768 TRAEY, 1770 TREBEY, (and sun!), 1771 TRIBY, 1772 TRIBEY, 1774 TRIBBEY, 1777 TRIBBY, 1782 TREBBY, 1784 TRIBBEE and 1793 TREEBY. How about that 12 different spellings!!

My SARAH (TRIBBY?) MORRIS died in Columbiana Cnty, Ohio about 1849 at the ripe old age of 102! She holds the longevity record for all my (known) ancestors. My SARAH and John Morris moved from Loudoun Cnty to ELK RIVER Twp, Columbiana Cnty, Ohio, about 1803. Thus my main interest in the

Page 2 of letter from Rex Moorhead to: Larry Richardson - 8 April 1975

TRIBBY family is in the generations precedeing SARAH's somewhat earlier than your immediate interest, but I am sure that if we establish a connection, we can help each other on these earlier common ancestors.

Can you tell me anymore about the 1848 JOHN TRIBBY (of Loudoun Cnty) WILL ? that JOHN could have been a brother, probably, of SARAH TRIBBY MORRIS.

One other clue to the probability of my TRIBBY background, A biographer of the Morris family of Columbiana Cnty stated that the family was of Irish-Welsh descent. Of course the Vuchland area of Chester Cnty, Penn. was in the region of extensive Welsh settlement in the late 1600's & early 1700's.

There are numerous Moreheads (some Murrheads) in Loudoun Cnty lists, but to my knowledge unrelated to my Morehead Irish ancestors who settled in Pa. Where did your Moorhead friend's family originate, and who and where was the Morehead tied up with your Melain cousins ?

I'll keep your letter and if my furthur research, or possibly information from other correspondants from the 'Helper' ad, suggests additional help for you, I'll certainly pass the information on, and, hopefully my letter may suggest information which you have which would be helpful to me. Thank you again, for your letter.

Sincerely, Rex K. Moorhead

If you establish a connection with the Loudoun Cnty TRIBBYs, I could provide some information on DEEDS for TRIBBYs before 1800, and possibly additional TRIBBY names from the Tax Lists ca 1760-1790.

Dear Mr Richardson,

Since answering your letter, I received a response from Mrs James (Irma) Markel, 11808 S. E. Alder, Portland, Ore 97216, whose husband's g-g-g grandfather was the JOHN TRIBBY mentioned by you, who died 1848, in Holmes Cnty, she sent a family sheet for JOHN TRIBBY, showing a THOMAS TRIBBY's son who married FRISCILLA MUNDELL. I gave her your address.

Hope to hear from you again.

Sincerely, Rex Moorhead
